Introducing AI Proposal Generation

We're excited to share that TechnoMile has partnered with pWin.ai, an AI-powered proposal generation platform built on Shipley best practices, and we can now offer proposal generation as an additional option for customers who want to accelerate and scale their proposal efforts. Integration between TechnoMile and pWin.ai means your capture intelligence in Growth can push directly into proposal development without rework and rekeying, streamlining the opportunity-to-award process.

Connect with your TechnoMile Customer Success Manager for more details.
